Revelation 16
New Matthew Bible
The angels pour out their vials full of wrath.
16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways; pour out your vials of wrath upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a foul and a grievous sore upon all who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel shed out his vial upon the sea, and it turned as it were into the blood of a dead man. And every living thing died in the sea.

4 And the third angel shed out his vial upon the rivers and springs of waters, and they turned to blood. 5 And I heard an angel say, Lord who is and who was, you are righteous and holy, because you have given such judgments. 6 For they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and therefore you have given them blood to drink, for they have deserved it.
7 And I heard another out of the altar say, It is so, Lord God Almighty; true and righteous are your judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial on the sun, and power was given to him to afflict people with the heat of fire. 9 And the people raged in the great heat, and spoke evil of the name of God, who has power over these plagues. And they did not repent, to give him glory.
