According to the White House Medical Unit, the temperature was taken three times over a 15 minute period - all three registered above the @CDCgov 100.4 guidelines.

Shimon Prokupecz
@ShimonPro

CNN White House Team: A journalist was denied entry into the press briefing after having a 99.9 fever. He was trying to get access to the briefing and was turned away and is being held by the press office on the White House driveway

https://twitter.com/VPPressSec/status/1238863434000797696?s=20