I replied no.

She responded, how about now?

Quarantine has turned us all into dogs. We roam the house all day looking for food. We are told ‘no’ if we get too close to strangers. And we get really excited about car rides.

“On hearing ill rumour that Londoners may soon be urged into their lodgings by Her Majesty’s men, I looked upon the street to see a gaggle of striplings making fair merry, and no doubt spreading the plague well about. Not a care had these rogues for the health of their elders!”

It seems a little ridiculous to me that people are so afraid that their children are going to miss a whole month of learning. How about using this month to teach them how to cook, check the oil in the car, do laundry, treat others with respect, sew on a button, deep clean, balance a checkbook, etc. Not all learning is done in a classroom!
Alcoholics Rejoice!

Now staying home and drinking by yourself is considered being socially responsible.

If we all have to quarantine for 2 weeks we should pretend it’s Christmas. Put the tree up, make Xmas dinner, Boxing Day binge, drink baileys, board games.

We know what to do in those two weeks of not leaving the house and we love it, so Christmas is the answer.
I was all happy and content with being cooped up and antisocial until the government told me I have to be cooped up and antisocial.
Did you wash your paws?
The Coronavirus will come and go. But the government will NEVER forget how easy it was to take control of your life. To control every sporting event, classroom, restaurant table, and church pew. And even if you are allowed to leave your house.
