The most impressive doctor we know of has a message for COVID.

We are not going to identify this doctor for obvious reasons. However, this doctor has a wall like no other doctor I have ever seen, and I mean IMPRESSIVE, high level diplomas from countries all over the world, this doctor is a total genius that aces the most difficult stuff instantly And that is important with this, because it proves the more intelligent and capable you are, the more you see through the Covid scam.

THIS IS BAD FOLKS.

We got ALL the details. First of all, if you take ANY of the alternative cures for COVID, you will be denied insurance coverage. If you take the chlorine dioxide, quina, ivermectin, hydroxychloriquine, zinc or anything else to help you overcome Covid that is not their vax or one of their other hell expensive cures, you will be denied health insurance. This is already (about to be the case) in Mexico and it is going to be global.

On the back side of this, this doctor has stated that they are indeed intentionally killing people that comply with whatever rules are necessary to get health insurance, and nothing can be done to stop it because the corruption is too complete. This doctor has stated that they have already started killing large numbers of people (a far greater number than even the newspapers are publishing) which makes sense, because now, in my immediate circle of association there are additional people (now 5) that are already "dead from covid" who died as soon as they went to the hospital when they had no Covid symptoms at all. The last one went in for pain in the left kidney, they gave him a shot, he died within an hour and they called it a COVID death. These five people are not the ones I reported before (scorpion sting, broken arm, etc resulting in immediate death and Covid diagnosis,) these people are IMMEDIATELY known in the immediate circle and not "someone talking about it". It is obvious they killed the last man but what can you do when a totally corrupted police state is running the covid scam?

FIVE people in my immediate circle of association dead vastly exceeds the number being reported when taken as a percentage of population. They are absolutely letting it rip in Mexico probably because of the orders to keep society open, so the covid scammers are murdering every possible person they can possibly get away with.

Back to what the doctor said:

This doctor stated in specific terms directly to US, not someone else, that Covid was a manufactured virus that was designed to be easy to cure and they want to punish anyone who seeks an easy alternative cure by denying them medical care. This doctor stated that the goal was to "simply kill everyone off" by threatening them with a virus they made that is not that bad and then killing them by other means once they enter the medical system. Additionally this doctor explicitly stated that the "covid vax" is not a vaccine, it is gene editing to change people from what they are to what a group of evil elites want, and that the "easy cures" are for them while they offer NO CURE for the rest of humanity, only a shot of doom. This doctor is freaked out over it but knows that if anyone speaks up they'll immediately lose their license so rather than have that happen, this doctor is telling trusted people what is going on so a warning can be spread.

What to do?

Take the hydroxychloroquine, Ivermectin, Quina or whatever else you have, (it probably works) because this virus was explicitly designed to be easy to treat. When you take these things, DO NOT TELL YOUR INSURANCE YOU DID, you lie about that, don't be a fool - and then resist the shot for as long as you possibly can. Once it is impossible to have insurance or a job without the shot, well, go without insurance and eat out of the trash while sleeping in a $20 tent. Obviously if you go in for any sort of medical care be well aware of the fact they might kill you right then and there so make damn good and sure you have to. What else can I say? That's the reality we are up against now.
