In this recent poll on who will primary the best in GOP field, Cruz has slipped waaaaaaaaay down. We used to respect Cruz, but his latest rhetoric about President Trump is really costing him big time. Shows Cruz is just another poli-tick-shun. President Trump of course blew everyone else in the poll out of the water. We the people appreciate that President Trump always spoke his mind and wasn't a mealy-mouth politician.

If you are wondering why there seems to be so many people living in the US willing to sell their souls to commit vote fraud against an honest American business man - Jay explains. I knew it had to do with more than one party – these Satanists work hard to get their people into key governmental positions in both parties in order to destroy America – a nation based on Christian principals. This also answers the following questions. Janet Lee

Matt Couch@RealMattCouch: What kind of a man negates the agreement that President Donald J. Trump put in place, that drastically reduces the price of insulin, and makes it unaffordable for struggling Americans?

Charlie Kirk@charliekirk11 Why is the left “pro choice” when it comes to murdering unborn children in the womb, but doesn't allow choice when it comes to mandating masks?

HOW DID MITCH MCCONNELL GET $40 MILLION IN A LIFE OF POLITICS?!?!? HOW DID MITCH GET RICH ???

Maybe Georgia got rid of one of them:

Paul Sperry@paulsperry_ DEVELOPING ... Fulton County (GA) elections director fired

Maybe once people see it has little to do with the two parties, but more to do with the spiritual condition of those in office. It is becoming more and more obvious. Janet Lee

Not. The. Same. Person.

If you choose to lie to yourself then that's on you.

In case you are wondering why the US mass media is so devious and unAmerican in interviewing real Americans or writing their fraud stories –

Rep. Matt Gaetz@RepMattGaetz

There's a lot of Florida envy across the U.S. right now. Businesses are opening in Florida. Unemployment is dropping. Home buying is increasing. That type of prosperity under Governor DeSantis is very attractive to those who are having to endure lockdowns in other states.

The Antarctic ozone hole (seen in the image below) was one of the deepest and largest ozone holes in recorded history. Notice that we wrote was in the previous sentence: this massive ozone hole closed up on January 6, 2021, according to the World Meteorological Organization.
