

President Trump, with Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi in the oval office, defended his Admins' decision to keep allies in the dark ahead of U.S. strikes on Iran — and did it with a line that instantly went viral. “We didn’t tell anybody about it because we wanted surprise,” before adding a historical jab: “Who knows better about surprise than Japan? Why didn’t you tell me about Pearl Harbor?” The remark, referencing the 1941 attack that killed 2,403 Americans, appeared to catch the room off guard. <https://mxmnews.com/article/009053e1-7497-4080-a8fb-eb7a3fd353d4?trump-pressed-on-iran-secrecy-reminds-japan-of-pearl-harbor>

We are getting very close to meeting our objectives as we consider winding down our great Military efforts in the Middle East with respect to the Terrorist Regime of Iran: (1) Completely degrading Iranian Missile Capability, Launchers, and everything else pertaining to them. (2) Destroying Iran's Defense Industrial Base. (3) Eliminating their Navy and Air Force, including Anti Aircraft Weaponry. (4) Never allowing Iran to get even close to Nuclear Capability, and always being in a position where the U.S.A. can quickly and powerfully react to such a situation, should it take place. (5) Protecting, at the highest level, our Middle Eastern Allies, including Israel, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, the United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, Kuwait, and others. The Hormuz Strait will have to be guarded and policed, as necessary, by other Nations who use it — The United States does not! If asked, we will help these Countries in their Hormuz efforts, but it shouldn't be necessary once Iran's threat is eradicated. Importantly, it will be an easy Military Operation for them. Thank you for your attention to this matter! President DONALD J. TRUMP

Garvit pandey is feeling blessed in USA. \March 19 at 4:31 AM · 🇺🇸 America... STOP Because Pete Hegseth confessed something that gave me chills from head to toe. And after reading this... you will sit back... close your eyes... and ask yourself one question that you may never be able to fully answer. There was a day in Iraq... that Pete Hegseth does not talk about often. A day that most people in his position would spend the rest of their lives trying to forget. His vehicle took a direct hit. In a combat zone. In the middle of Baghdad. And in that fraction of a second... between what happened... and what could have happened... Pete Hegseth should not be here today. The physics of that moment said he was not coming home. The odds of that moment said his story was over. And yet... he walked away. Completely. And here is the confession that gave me chills. Pete Hegseth looked back at that moment... and said something that no political title... no Bronze Star... no Pentagon office... could ever fully explain. "I should not be alive. And every single day since that day... I have asked myself the same question. Why me. Why did God keep me here. What am I supposed to do with this borrowed time." And then he answered that question. Not with words. With his life. He came home. And instead of resting... instead of walking away from everything that reminded him of that day... he picked up a microphone. Fought for veterans being forgotten. Wrote books. Told the truth when the truth was expensive. Served again. And again. And again. Until one day... Donald Trump called him. And put him in charge of the most powerful military on earth. Think about that for one second. The man running America's entire military today... is a man who once sat inside a vehicle that took a direct hit in Baghdad... and walked away when he should not have. That is not luck. That is not coincidence. That is God keeping someone alive... because He had a plan so big... that even a direct hit in Baghdad could not stop it. Pete Hegseth did not choose to survive that day God chose that for him. And everything Pete has done since... every veteran he fought for... every truth he told... every sacrifice he made... has been his answer to that one question he asked himself in the aftermath. Why did God keep me here. Today we know the answer. 🙏🇺🇸 Drop a ❤️ right now if this gave you chills. Type "GOD HAD A PLAN FOR PETE HEGSETH" in the comments. Tag someone who needs to be reminded today that when God keeps you alive... He always has a reason bigger than you can see.

 70 MILES OF NOTHING LEFT — TRUCKERS ROLL IN TO KEEP CATTLE ALIVE

 Nebraska Wildfire Impact Zone This isn't just burned land.

 This is pastures gone  Hay fields gone  Calving grounds wiped out For 70 miles.

 BUT HERE'S THE PART THAT MATTERS Convoys of hay trucks are rolling in. • Drivers donating time • Ranchers donating hay • Loads moving nonstop

 No spotlight. Just showing up.

 HOW BAD IS IT? Ranchers are in the middle of calving season with:

• No grass • No feed • No fallback  It's feed... or lose everything.

 REAL STORIES FROM THE GROUND Families fought these fires themselves.

• Ranch kids battling flames for hours • Calling for help that never came

• Saving what they could... building by building  This isn't just loss.

 This is survival mode. This is what trucking looks like when it matters most.

No contracts. No rates. No complaints.  Just drivers stepping up when people need it.

RESPECT TO EVERY DRIVER MOVING HAY RIGHT NOW You're not just hauling freight.  You're keeping livelihoods alive.
