This is absolutely insane:

Venezuela currently has 303 billion barrels of crude oil reserves, which Trump says the US now controls.

Oil prices are trading at ~$57/barrel, making Venezuela's total reserves worth $17.3 TRILLION.

Even if the US sells this oil for HALF of the market rate, that's still $8.7 TRILLION.

In other words, in 12 hours, the US has gained control of oil reserves worth more than the entire GDP of ALL countries in the world, aside from the US and China.

That's 4 TIMES larger than the GDP of Japan.

Most people do not realize how much the world just changed.

Everyone paying attention yet? The world just changed course.

It's not simply about energy but also about access and control.

1. The Panama Canal must be controlled by the United States.
2. The Caribbean and all the key straits in and out of the Gulf of America must be controlled by the United States.
3. The financial markets and global wealth must be controlled by the United States.
4. Access to beachfront property that Venezuela afforded to China, Russia, Iran, Hamas, Hezbollah, and nasty drug cartels must be controlled by the United States.

Guess what, that just happened without the loss of one Soldier.

If you are asking yourself what's going on in Venezuela...

I can tell you, as a Venezuelan, I had to leave my home country along with 9 million other Venezuelans because of the socialism and Maduro dictatorship regimen.

This news is GREAT NEWS!

You can call Trump whatever you want, you can say he is after our oil but the truth is as a Venezuelan we would rather give him cheaper oil than giving it free to Russia, China, Iran, Cuba etc.

We would rather have US army camps in Venezuela than ISIS training camps, Hezbollah.

So YES! As a Venezuelan I can speak for us and tell you, what has happened is GREAT!

Group title pending · Karen Millhouse-Silva · Important clarification for those watching from outside Venezuela: What happened was NOT an attack on Venezuela or its people. This was a targeted operation against the regime, aimed at specific military and strategic points linked to Nicolás Maduro and his inner circle. Venezuelan civilians were never the target. Venezuelans are the ones who have suffered for years under this dictatorship.

It is essential to be very clear: Nicolás Maduro is not an innocent president. He is a dictator, a narco-terrorist, and the head of a criminal structure that has destroyed a nation. His wife is also implicated in this system. Maduro has been formally indicted for years and has been wanted under the law across multiple U.S. administrations, not just one. This process began long before today and spans Obama, Trump, Biden, and others. This is not partisan politics. It is a legal reality. It is also important to state this clearly: Nicolás Maduro is not the legitimate president of Venezuela. Venezuelans voted for Edmundo González as their president. Maduro refused to recognize the will of the people and remained in power by force, usurping authority that does not belong to him. For years, he has governed without democratic legitimacy, sustained by repression, military control, fear, imprisonment, and exile. He is not a constitutional leader, he is a usurper.

For decades, Venezuelans asked the international community to act. Many governments issued statements. Few took decisive steps. Now, finally, accountability has begun. According to official reports, Maduro has been captured. This moment represents a historic turning point. You may strongly disagree with Trump's domestic policies and still recognize that this action directly supports justice, accountability, and the Venezuelan people's struggle for freedom. Venezuela's crisis cannot be reduced to U.S. partisan politics. This is about ending a dictatorship, dismantling narco-terrorism, and restoring dignity to millions forced into silence, prison, or exile. This is a win for Venezuela 🇻🇪 and it is a win for the world because narco-terrorism and dictatorship threaten global stability. This is not a celebration of violence. It is hope after decades of suffering.

Nothing says tough man quite like getting scooped up in your bedtime pajamas looking like you just went downstairs for a glass of warm milk and regret every life choice that led you there.

For years this guy strutted around barking speeches, threatening the world, pretending he was untouchable. Turns out the final boss of socialism is allergic to daylight, authority, and elastic waistbands. Look at him. No crown. No podium. No dramatic music. Just jammies, a thousand yard stare, and the sudden realization that Twitter propaganda doesn't stop handcuffs. This is what happens when your revolution runs out of excuses and meets a boarding party instead of a press conference.

Reminder to all would be tyrants out there
Rule in fear long enough and one night you're not getting a midnight snack
You're getting extradited in pajamas
Sleep tight, champ. You earned it. 😊

BREAKING: HHS Secretary RFK Jr. Drops the HAMMER on Somali Fraud, Cuts Off ALL Child Care Payments to Minnesota, Effective Immediately "We have frozen all child care payments to the state of Minnesota. We have turned off the money spigot and we are finding the fraud," HHS said in a statement. "You have probably read the serious allegations that the state of Minnesota has funneled millions of taxpayer dollars to fraudulent daycares across Minnesota over the past decade."

HHS took three severe penalty actions against Minnesota today:

1. Activated our defend the spend system for all ACF payments. Starting today, all ACF payments across America will require a justification and a receipt or photo evidence before we send money to a state.
 2. Identified the malicious actors in Nick Shirley's work. Demanded Gov. Tim Walz comprehensive audit of these centers. This includes attendance records, licenses, complaints, investigations, and inspections.
 3. Launch a dedicated fraud-reporting hotline and email address at <http://childcare.gov> Whether you are a parent, provider, or member of the general public, we want to hear from you.
- This is massive.

🔥 BOOM!!! 🔥 — THE GREAT RECLAMATION HAS BEGUN. THE SUPREME COURT JUST RESTORED PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP'S CONSTITUTIONAL POWER TO REMOVE ROGUE COMMISSIONERS FROM FEDERAL AGENCIES. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN NINETY YEARS, THE PRESIDENT CAN CLEAN HOUSE. THE WALLS OF BUREAUCRATIC TYRANNY ARE CRACKING ❤️💙

Since 1935, the presidency has been a hostage. A hidden ruling called Humphrey's Executor v. United States created a shield around unelected bureaucrats buried inside so-called independent agencies. They could not be fired. Not by Congress. Not by the people. Not even by the Commander in Chief. These were the Deep State's castles inside the government. Protected. Untouchable. Writing rules with the power of law while answering to no one. For decades, they dictated policy, destroyed accountability, and made every President a figurehead in his own house. That ended this week. In a ruling few expected but history will never forget the Supreme Court confirmed that President Donald J. Trump has full constitutional authority to remove Democratic commissioners Mary Boyle, Richard Trumka Jr, and Alexander Hoehn-Saric from the Consumer Product Safety Commission. The Court reminded the nation that executive power belongs to the President alone. Not to agencies. Not to boards. Not to faceless lawyers. The 6-3 decision has detonated the foundation of bureaucratic immunity. President Donald J. Trump can now terminate any commissioner who obstructs reform, dismantle ideological mandates, and reclaim executive control over agencies that have operated like private empires. The ruling sets a precedent that can sweep through every corner of the federal maze — FTC, SEC, NLRB, CDC, FDA, DOE. Hundreds of unelected operators who hid behind the term "independent" are now exposed. The Consumer Product Safety Commission is only the beginning. Nearly 700 positions across Washington fall under the same model. With this judgment, President Donald J. Trump holds the legal weapon he was denied in his first term. The sword is back in his hands.

Inside the Deep State, panic has already begun. For decades, they didn't need to win elections. They only needed to control who stayed behind. By embedding loyal operatives inside untouchable posts, they guaranteed their agenda survived every presidency. They wrote laws under the cover of regulation. They censored industries through "safety standards." They shifted policy without ever standing for a vote. That structure is now collapsing. This decision is not about staffing. It's about sovereignty. The hidden coup that began ninety years ago has been reversed. The unelected state no longer outranks the elected one. The legal scaffolding that protected the regime is being dismantled piece by piece. That is why the media is silent. They understand what this means. If President Donald J. Trump uses this authority — and he will — the entire architecture of shadow governance will fall. Agencies that weaponized policy for ideology will be stripped of power. Mandates will be rescinded. Political infiltrators will be removed. The Deep State's invisible army is finally within reach. President Donald J. Trump's second term begins now, with the power he was denied in 2016. The presidency is no longer a cage. It is a command post. He can purge the administrative state, rebuild federal institutions that answer to the people, and restore a government that serves its citizens instead of its masters. This is The Great Reclamation. The end of ninety years of executive humiliation. The day the balance returns. The Deep State buried the presidency under red tape and called it democracy. But the chains have been cut. And Trump now holds the axe. — 2025 MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!

Engineering Facts

Japan has introduced inflatable emergency housing designed to be deployed within minutes after a disaster. The goal is to address the emotional and psychological needs often overlooked in crisis response. Unlike traditional shelters that place families in large shared spaces, these pods provide individual rooms with solid walls and closable doors. This helps restore a sense of safety and personal space after traumatic events. Each unit is compact when stored, allowing rapid transport and large-scale deployment in disaster zones. Despite their size, they are designed to feel stable, insulated, and livable.

Privacy has been shown to significantly improve mental health outcomes for displaced people, especially children and the elderly. These pods help reduce stress, conflict, and exhaustion in already difficult conditions. The design reflects Japan's long experience with earthquakes and emergencies, combining engineering efficiency with human-centered thinking. It represents a shift toward dignity-focused disaster relief.
