On Christmas Eve 1963 77 US Generals birthed the Plan to Save the World. Three months later 133 Generals became part of Operation Freedom Eagles 35 that eventually led to the Q Operation. That's 59 years dedicated to planning where we are today. History of the Q Force and Worldwide Alliance: (The Cabal) uses different names with Lucifer in them. The "Lucis Trust" is what the Rockefellers put money into to finance the United Nations. They use Lucis/lucifer over & over again. How did WW1 start? The sinking of the "Lusitania." Who set up Japanese Intelligence? That was a MacArthur Operation as we rebuilt Japan after WW2. That's why MacArthur & Eisenhower decided together that Eisenhower should go for the Presidency. MacArthur acted like he rolled up & went away yet he was helping coordinate Intelligence people against that Rockefeller operation & that Brit operation that created CIA & Air Force & all the Masonic ties in there. That MacArthur crowd is the original crowd that led to the 17th letter operation in this current period. It's got earlier origins prior to that even but that's the modern side of this. ...Juan O Savin

Denver's first measurable snow wreaked havoc with the morning commute as both directions of 6th Avenue are closed at I-25 due to a 100-vehicle crash, according to Denver Police.

Notorious for often getting the most snow in the state among local resorts, Wolf Creek Ski Area is at it again, opening their southwest Colorado location with approximately 30 percent of their skiable terrain already open. According to an announcement on the website, the ample open terrain is the result of an early November storm dropping 26 inches of snow in the area, bringing the base to 32 inches of all-natural snow. The area has gotten about 40 inches of snow already this year.
